RABBI'S MESSAGE

A colleague of mine once explained that revolutions often failed because the zealous reformers projected their personal ambitions and agendas upon their so-called lofty ideals. He wrote:

Well, that's the way it has been with so many revolutions. So much has happened, yet there has been little change. That's the way, I think, it must always be, until a revolution also takes place within the revolutionaries. A friend of mine once said to me, "No matter how you cut the salami, it's still the same salami." Most revolutionaries cut the salami in different slices, but what they deal out is the same—adjustments to consumerism and comfort, and re-direction of aggression, not its elimination. This explains why revolutions go wrong. The ideals are fine, but they can never flower, because they are hijacked by the ego.

When I observe what is currently taking place in the Ukraine, I think also of the Cold War which took place several decades ago. In the immortal words of Prime Minister Winston Churchill: "From Stettin in the Baltic to Trieste in the Adriatic an iron curtain has descended across the Continent."

RABBI'S Message

In the fourth chapter of Malachi, the Haphtarah portion for Shabbat Hagadol, we think of the Pesach which is yet to come. We think of the Messianic Age in which all of humanity is liberated from slavery. The prophet, Malachi, envisions a new world order in which God purges our planet of corruption and oppression. Elijah will turn the hearts of the parents towards the children and the hearts of the children towards the parents. However, as I reflect upon Russia's annexation of the Crimea, all we have is the same salami. Mikhail Gorbachev's radical concepts of glasnost and perestroika may have led to the disintegration of the Soviet Union, the fall of Communism in Eastern Europe, and more economic openness in Russia, but it has ultimately made little inroads on the Russian mindset.

Just as the Soviet Union of the mid twentieth century virtually enslaved Eastern Europe and turned the various countries into puppet regimes, so the new Russia of the early twenty first century swiftly reacted to the overthrow of their political stooges in the Ukraine and annexed the Crimea. Just as Russian tanks were sent into Hungary and Czechoslovakia to prevent those countries from leaving the Soviet orbit, so Russian troops poured into the Ukraine when it became clear that the Ukrainian government wanted stronger ties with the European Union. The referendum to join Russia or remain part of the Ukraine was a transparent farce. The Crimea is as much a satellite regime as were such countries as Poland, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Hungary, and East Germany. The financial aid package which will be earmarked for the Ukraine resembles the Marshall Plan of the 1940s. The rhetoric coming from American and Russian leaders resembles the rhetoric of the Cold War. We have the same salami.

As we envision the Messianic Age, it is natural to search for ways of translating our dreams into reality. However, before we can launch into social action programs and help bring peace to our troubled world, we have to work on ourselves. If we project our own agendas onto the social problems which face us, all we have is the same salami. Just as God liberated the Hebrews from Egyptian bondage, we have to liberate ourselves from total self-absorption. Slavery to our animal lusts can impoverish our lives as much as the curtailment of freedom of speech and freedom of religion. Once we realize that the universe doesn't exist to satisfy all of our desires and once we can acknowledge our responsibilities to our neighbors, our community will be a healthier place for our children to grow up.

UPCOMING in May and June—a photographic exhibit by Dr. Aliza Holtz who delights in highlighting often-unnoticed features of Fort Tryon Park.

Holtz is a scientist who loves art. Nurtured on the one hand by a great-grandfather who was a scientist and inventor, and on the other by a father who is a prominent Jewish artist, she has been immersed in the worlds of science and art since childhood. Appreciation of details is a cornerstone of both her scientific and photographic work, leading to the awe she experiences in both realms.

Her photographs have been exhibited in New York City, Bethlehem, New Hampshire, and Waltham, Massachusetts, and have appeared in publications in New York, Alaska, Massachusetts, and Florida.

Many of Aliza's photographs are for sale, with a portion of the proceeds going to Hebrew Tabernacle. A price list is available.

THE ANNUAL UPTOWN COMMUNITY CHURCH

CLOTHING SWAP

SUNDAY, MAY 18th, 12:30PM-3:30PM

551 FORT WASHINGTON AVENUE (AT 185th STREET)

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

HEBREW TABERNACLE CONGREGATION

Do you have clothes sitting in bags waiting to be given away?

Are you looking for a good reason to clear out your closets and welcome spring?

Then join us on May 18th for the Annual Uptown Community Church Clothing

Swap in partnership with Hebrew Tabernacle Congregation.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Bring gently used, clean clothing to Hebrew Tabernacle of Washington Heights on Sunday, May 18th at 12:30 pm. Then stick around and look through all your neighbors' clothes and 'shop' for yourself! Leftover clothes are donated to local organizations that collect clothing for the needy. Shopping bags will be available for all our Swap Shoppers — as long as supplies last!
