RABBI'S MESSAGE

Benjamin Disraeli, a British statesman who served as Prime Minister of the United Kingdom in 1868 and again from 1874-1880, had a deep sense of social justice. The novel, Sybil, written in 1845, portrays the wealthy landowners enjoying excesses beyond all imagination, and the poor working class enduring squalid conditions that were barely able to sustain human life. Although Disraeli was converted to Christianity at the age of twelve and lived most of his life as a Christian, Jewish values permeate his novel. He writes:

Two nations, between whom there is no intercourse and sympathy; who are as ignorant of each other's habits, thoughts, and feelings, as if they were dwellers in different zones, or inhabitants of different planets; who are formed by a different breeding, are fed by a different food, are ordered by different manners, and are not governed by the same laws.

"You speak of—" said Egremont, hesitatingly.

"The Rich and the Poor."

Indeed, there are two nations living in America. There is the nation of those who can take food, clothing, and adequate shelter for granted and there is a nation of those who struggle to obtain and maintain the basic necessities. In 2010, 46.9 million people were living in poverty, up from 37.3 million in 2007—the fourth consecutive annual increase in the number of people in poverty. This is the largest number in the 52 years for which poverty rates have been published. The 2010 poverty rate for Hispanics was 26.6 percent, for Blacks 27.4 percent. In 2010, the poverty rate increased for children under age 18 from 20.7 percent to 22.0 percent. In addition, at least 46.6 million Americans are without any form of health insurance.

Two nations exist in my home town, St. Louis, which is considered to be the ninth most segregated city in the United States. Ferguson, MO the venue where Michael Brown was fatally shot and where days of racial unrest followed, is only a few miles north of where I grew up. The rioting and looting was not simply a response to the shooting of an unarmed black man by a white police officer. It reflected deep-rooted inequities between Blacks and Whites living in St. Louis County.

In 1980, Ferguson was 85% white and 14% black. Due to white flight to the western and southern suburbs of St. Louis, the community became 69% black and 29% white. Exclusionary zoning tactics prevented black families from moving into the more affluent, predominantly white neighborhoods. Black families were attracted to older, inner-ring suburbs like Ferguson in the northern part of the country because they were built before restrictive zoning tactics, and therefore, allowed apartments. The rising black population in Ferguson did not lead to a corresponding rise in political power. The mayor and the police chief are white, as are five of the six City Council members. The school board consists of six white members and one Hispanic. Many black residents, lacking the wealth to buy property, move from apartment to apartment and have not put down political roots.

In the Ferguson Police Department, only three of 53 officers are black. The largely white force stops black residents far out of proportion to their population. Blacks account for 86% of the traffic stops in the city, and 93% of the arrests after those stops.

In addition to political and legal disparities between the white and black populations, economic disparities exist as well. The median household income for St. Louis County is $47,000 a year. The median household income for residents of Ferguson is $36,000 a year. This figure, adjusted for inflation, represents a 25% decline between 2000 and 2012.

Economic disparities go hand in hand with segregated schools. The shooting victim, Michael Brown was educated in the underperforming Normandy School District, which lost accreditation and is being operated by the Missouri Department of Education. Neighboring school districts have fought accepting Normandy students as transfers. It may "take a village to raise a child", but many administrators in better-resourced parts of St. Louis County had no problem saying quite publicly that Michael Brown and his brothers and sisters did not belong to their village.

How brutally ironic is this reality as the year, 2014, marks the sixtieth anniversary of Brown vs. Board of Education of Topeka? On May 17th, 1954, nine Supreme Court justices unanimously repudiated the concept of "separate, but equal" and outlawed racial segregation in the public schools. Chief Justice Earl Warren wrote the opinion:

...To separate children from others of similar age and qualifications solely because of their race generates a feeling of inferiority as to their status in the community that may affect their hearts and minds in a way unlikely to be undone . . .

We conclude that in the field of public education the doctrine of "separate but equal" has no place. Separate educational facilities are inherently unequal.

As Jews, how can we allow "two nations" to continue to exist in our country? Withdrawing our love of the stranger betrays everything for which Judaism stands. As Jews, we must think of humanity as one family, not as two nations warring with each other. Feeding the hungry, instructing the uneducated, advocating for the disadvantaged, and reducing the gulf between the haves and the have nots is, indeed, religious act. A truly religious community dedicated to the service of God is, in essence, a caring community dedicated to the service of people.

LETTER FROM ONE OF THE VICE PRESIDENTS

I have been meaning to write this message for some time now and it is long overdue but tending to family matters and dealing with the many details it takes to run the Tabernacle have kept me from submitting this message sooner.

First of all, I want to say that it is a great honor to serve this 108-year-old institution and I thank the congregation for the nomination at the last annual meeting. I will periodically use the Bulletin to update you on what is happening in our community and may also appeal for assistance with events.

Rabbi's New Office

The Rabbi's office has been relocated to the northwest corner of the second floor. His old office is now designated as Classroom #2 and will be used for our Hebrew School and as a rental space to generate additional income. Congregants can meet with the Rabbi in his new office or arrange a meeting with him in our new Conference Room, adjacent to the General Office.

New Tot Membership Program

We have a new program that allows families to join our congregation at a reduced rate until their children reach first grade. Several

SAVE THE DATE for our Annual Rummage Sale Seeking Items to Sell and Volunteers to Help!!!

This year's Rummage Sale will be held on Sunday, December 7th and Monday, December 8th from 10am to 4 pm. What a great opportunity to clean out your closets and cabinets! Ask neighbors to donate their gently used items. Please help by passing the information on to your friends and community. This is one of the Hebrew Tabernacle's largest fund raisers and we always need funds!

We accept donations of houseware, furniture, software, CD's, DVD's, books, toys, games, art work, jewelry, handbags, children's clothing and general bric a brac. All items should be in working order and in good condition. If you would like to receive a receipt for your donation, please label boxes and bags with the general content and personal information. You may bring in donations during regular office hours, or call 212 568-8304, to arrange a convenient time.

Our Corner Café will again be open. We gladly accept donations of fresh baked brownies, muffins, cookies, bread, etc. to be dropped off the mornings of the sale. The delicious aromas wafting from these treats encourage shoppers to stay longer and buy more!

Volunteers will be needed prior to the Sale for sorting, pricing and setting up. Each day of the Sale we will need floor walkers, cashiers, baggers, and concessionaires. Please contact us if you are available to help at this wonderful community event.

Thank you in advance for your help and support.

Rose Ellen Neidish & Mike Klein, Co-Chairs

families have recently joined. In conjunction with this program, we ran our first Tot - Hashanah service. It was a great success with 45 families in attendance. Our Rosh Hashanah Youth service was also very successful and even needed more chairs. To obtain information for yourself or somebody else interested in this program, please contact Shelly Koy, Hebrew School Principal. You may pick up a special Tot Shabbat Family Membership form from the office or download an application form from our web site.

Building Matters

A number of fairly large capital projects had to be undertaken this fiscal year. Three deteriorated 4" cast iron roof drains had to be replaced, one back yard floor drain was replaced and the drain pipe in the floor was replaced in our kitchen as well. New hinges were installed on some of our historic main entrance doors and the unsightly heavy iron bars across the inside of the doors have been removed and replaced with attractive push bars. The transoms above the historic doors had new fire-rate frosted glass installed. New thermal insulated windows were installed in Classroom #1. New door closers were installed throughout the building and the door leading to the back yard from 185th street was restored and outfitted with a new push bar, as was the door leading to the back yard. Artist: Caroline Brown: Caroline is a published professional photographer who lives in Hudson Heights and is a member of the Uptown Community Church. She exhibits at Hudson View Gardens and has won the Crystal Apple Award for historic preservation and education.

Artist: Tuwanda Harmon: "I'm a self-taught digital artist, born in the Bronx, now living in Washington Heights. My inspiration comes from unscripted storytelling that builds up character throughout the process. When people see my work, I'd like them to see a story hidden within the piece. I enjoy using bold, bright colors, collaged patterns and photo manipulation. My favorite subject matters are portraits and abstracts which I create using digital applications on my iPad, painting with brush and canvas and using other mixed media. The most fulfilling part of my life is being a wife and mother."

illuminated exit signs were installed and additional emergency battery operated lighting was also installed.

Next on the list is the replacement of several large glass window panes in the sanctuary and possible expansion of our CCTV system. We will most likely have to repair a steam pipe in the near future as well. Our dues barely cover our operating expenditures. Capital projects must be covered through grants and donations. The more donations we receive the more capital improvements we will be able to make. We have made tremendous progress in maintaining and improving our building over the past few years, but there is still much that needs to be done to bring our building to a complete state of good repair.

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service

Hebrew Tabernacle will be holding its first Interfaith Thanksgiving Service in our sanctuary on Sunday, November 23 at 3:00 pm with the Uptown Church and the Church of the Heights. These two congregations now hold services in our building on Sundays. Please share this information with your friends and family.

Rummage Sale

Please mark your calendars for HT's famous annual rummage sale which will be held on Sunday and Monday, December 7 and 8 in our Social Hall. Volunteers are needed to sort, set up, pack, and clean up as well as to serve as cashiers, floor walkers and in the refreshment area. Donations are needed, but please do not donate any bedding items or items that are soiled or broken. In the adult garment category, please only bring coats, jackets, ties, sweaters, shoes and boots. To volunteer, please contact Rose Ellen Neidish or myself.

Secular New Year's Party

We would like to reestablish the HT tradition of having a New Year's Eve party. The party would be used as a fundraiser to replace the worn out stage curtains in the Social Hall. If you are interested in volunteering for this event, please contact Denny Kelk.

Welcome New Members

On behalf of the Executive Officers and Board of Trustees, I would like to welcome the following new members to our congregation:

Rhonda Lee Kaplan

Julia Weisenberg, Dmitri, Anny, Doria and Regina Kolmogorov

Eric, Magda and Ethan Cohen

Jennifer Talansky, Brain and Mikayla Schneider

Debbie Ann Meyer, Eric Michael and Isaac David Rosenthal

Molly and Ethan Wasow Park

Matt, Tracy and Violet Quinn Picker

Sarah Silver, John, Alexandra (Andi), Josephine (Josie) and Jamie Authers.

L'SHANAH TOVAH wishing all of you a year filled with peace, health and happiness.

Mike Klein, Vice President and Building Manager

Bar Mitzvah of Alec Farber

Alec Farber is currently an 8th grader at Columbia Secondary School in Harlem, where his favorite subjects are English and social studies. He competed in the New York State National Geographic GeoBee, where he came in 6th statewide, and has had an avid interest in geography, history, and learning about the world from a very young age. For the second year in a row he is competing in the national Future Cities competition, where he and his team create an environmentally sustainable city for the future. Alec has attended Hebrew school since Kitah Aleph, and enjoys participating in events at the Hebrew Tabernacle. He is thankful for the experience and how it has allowed him to connect with his Jewish identity.

Alec enjoys travelling and sometimes being as far away from school as possible. He has moved on from just learning about the world to actually seeing it in person. In France he visited a World War II Vichy detainment camp, the Parisian Jewish street where his great grandmother lived, and the Venetian Jewish Ghetto in Italy. After visiting the Terezin concentration camp at the age of 8, he became very aware of both Jewish and non-Jewish suffering, which has encouraged him to want to help the world through participating in government or charity when he grows up. He hopes to go to Israel to study for a few months in the future, which would be relevant since he's been in Hebrew school since Kitah Aleph. He is part of the fourth generation in his family to attend Camp Kinderland, a secular Jewish summer camp in Massachusetts. Yiddish and social activism are at the heart of his summer activities.

As his mitzvah project, Alec volunteers as a reading tutor for 5th graders at TEP Academy, and enjoys giving back in this way. He is pleased to participate in The Remembrance project, remembering and celebrating the Bar Mitzvah that could never happen for a victim of the holocaust. He likes biking and gardening in his free time. He is very grateful to have both his grandparents alive and well to see him go through this important date in his life, and is thankful for his loving family and friends, including the Hebrew Tabernacle community.

Members of the congregation are invited to join the Farber family for a Kiddush luncheon following the service. Please rsvp to laurenfarber@aol.com if you plan to stay for the luncheon.

Bar Mitzvah of Shay Rubinson

The Rubinson/Thorpe family invites the Hebrew Tabernacle congregation to celebrate with Shay Rubinson and his extended family and friends as he becomes a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, November 8, 2014 at 10:00 am.

Shay is an 8th grader at the Community School in Teaneck, NJ. Shay's greatest passion is playing, watching, and studying sports. He started playing baseball in the local Hudson Cliffs Baseball League. Shay currently competes in both baseball and basketball programs with the Yorkville Youth Athletic League. He is an avid New York Mets fan, which just goes to show that Shay has a great sense of humor and an endless capacity for optimism.

Over the past three years, Shay has spent part of his summers at Camp Scatico in the Hudson River Valley—where his great-grandfather, his paternal grandparents, and his dad also attended camp.

Shay's torah portion is Vayera from Genesis, which includes the recounting of Abraham's negotiations with God over the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, as well as the "Binding of Isaac" story.

Members of the congregation are invited to join the Rubinson/Thorpe family for a Kiddush luncheon following the service. Please rsvp to laurathorpe360@gmail.com if you plan to stay for the luncheon.

IN MEMORIAM

In grateful memory of the departed whose names are taken from the records of Hebrew Tabernacle and Beth Am and which appear on a separate weekly Yahrzeit list. It is our minhag to read Yahrzeit names at the Shabbat services following the date. If you would like a name read, please call the office in the preceding week.

Safe At Home The Hudson Community Project

NOW, EASIER ACCESS TO SERVICES FOR OLDER ADULTS

The YM & YWHA of Washington Heights and Inwood (WHIY) has collaborated with the Riverdale YM-YWHA, the Jewish Community Council of Washington Heights and Inwood, and the Hebrew Home at Riverdale to form a unique partnership called The Hudson Community Project: Safe at Home.

It combines our agencies' resources, expands the geographic scope of our services-and streamlines the way we provide them. The result – older adults can receive a more comprehensive selection of services aimed at helping you maintain your independence and make living at home more comfortable and secure.

SOME OF OUR SERVICES INCLUDE

Case Management — Housing Advocacy — Kosher pantry — Kosher meals — Social Adult Day care — In-home support — Health Maintenance — Rehabilitation — Transportation

For more information, please contact: Sarah Leiner, MSW at (212)-569-6200 x 233.
