RABBI'S MESSAGE

Four "isms" have confronted American democracy throughout her 237 year history: European-style despotism, fascism, communism and religious fundamentalism. The fourth "ism", religious fundamentalism, appears to dominate the news media in the twenty-first century. Like the proponents of European despotism, fascism, and communism, religious fundamentalists hate what American society stands for--its prosperity, its egalitarianism and its glorification of the rights of the individual. As in the three other "isms," the bottom line is grabbing power for the elite at the expense of the majority.

The brand of fundamentalism which usually grabs our attention is Muslim fundamentalism. Just as Christian fundamentalists have launched a holy crusade against "secular humanism" in American society, so Muslim fundamentalists have launched a holy crusade against western culture, particularly in the United States and Israel. They reject pluralism and seek to ban literature that they find to be offensive. As the West Wing's Josh Lyman put it, Al Qaeda is to Islam as the Ku Klux Klan is to Christianity.

Many of us recall the bombs which went off at the finish line of the Boston Marathon several months ago. This heinous crime, perpetrated by Tamerlan and Dzhokhar Tsarnaev, was clearly motivated by religious fundamentalism. Although Dzhokhar claims that he and his brother were responding to American involvement in Iraq and Afghanistan, there is also evidence to suggest that both men had become disillusioned with the American Dream. Tamerlan was even disillusioned with the mosque where he attended services because the preacher suggested that the celebrating of Thanksgiving and Martin Luther King Day were compatible with Moslem teachings.

Not only is religious fanaticism associated with Muslim terrorists, it is alive and well within Judaism as well. Jewish fundamentalism, particularly in Israel, has one characteristic in common with Christian and Muslim fundamentalism. It loathes pluralism and many aspects of western society.

During my Chanukah sermon, I made reference to the organization, Breaking the Silence. It is one of the antidotes to Jewish fanaticism in Israel. What is its message? Cases of abuse towards Palestinians, looting, and destruction of property have been the norm for years, but are still explained as extreme and unique cases. Soldiers who serve in the Territories witness and participate in military actions which change them immensely. Their testimonies portray a revisionist, and much grimmer picture in which deterioration of moral standards finds expression in the character of orders and the rules of engagement, and are justified in the name of Israel's security.

RABBI'S Message

While this reality is known to Israeli soldiers and commanders, Israeli society continues to turn a blind eye, and to deny what is done in its name. Discharged soldiers returning to civilian life discover the gap between the reality they encountered in the Territories, and the silence about this reality that they encounter at home. In order to become civilians again, soldiers are forced to ignore what they have seen and done. Breaking the Silence strives to make heard the voices of these soldiers, pushing Israeli society to face the reality that it has helped enable.

Bringing a controversial speaker to the University of Pennsylvania Hillel to address an aspect of Israel that Jewish leaders do not wish to be openly discussed was truly a moral dilemma for my daughter Leanne. On the one hand, Leanne feels that a university should promote a free exchange of ideas. She also believes that cultivating Israeli awareness means telling the entire story of what is taking place in the Jewish homeland: the good, the bad, and the ugly. She staunchly believes that being a Jewish leader is not always about telling people what they want to hear. To make a long story short, Leanne persuaded both the Board of Directors of the University of Pennsylvania Hillel and the Board of Directors of the Hillels of Greater Philadelphia to bring the Breaking the Silence speaker into the Hillel building. Ultimately, U of Penn's was the first Hillel in the country to sponsor such an event. Considering that the overwhelming majority of U of Penn students who affiliate with Hillel are Orthodox and Conservative, and that the Board of Directors has traditionally opposed controversy, this is a milestone!

Many of the soldiers who support Breaking the Silence are Orthodox Jews. While they support Israeli's right to defend itself from terrorism and naked aggression and look upon the Jewish State as the Promised Land, they also believe that morality and civil rights cannot be jettisoned in the process.

At the Pesach seder, we drink a fifth cup--the cup of Elijah. It symbolizes the Pesach which is yet to come, when all oppression shall disappear from the earth. Since its birth in 1776, America has struggled with the ideologies of despotism, fascism, communism, and religious fundamentalism. May the fifth cup represent that time when all of these deadly "isms" shall be permanently discredited. The promise of America is to bring idealism to a cynical world. It is to be a beacon of humanity and an exemplar of the rule of law. Individuals count in the eyes of God. May they also count in the eyes of our political and spiritual leaders, here and around the globe.

MANY THINGS ARE HAPPENING IN THE HT BUILDING

by Mike Klein, Building Chairperson

Con Edison Energy Grant

After a substantial amount of legwork, I was successful in securing HT a major Green Energy Grant from Con Edison. The work is ongoing at the time of this writing. Members who have been in parts of the building that have been re-lamped have noticed a significant improvement in the lighting levels. One person said, "Did you just paint the room? It looks much brighter." Nearly 90 % of the light fixtures in the building will be upgraded. All the fluorescent light fixtures (except the circular ones and high-intensity spotlights) will have their ballasts replaced with high-energy-saving ballasts. This will allow for a thinner, more energy-efficient bulb that will produce more light than the traditional one. The traditional Edison-based, screw-in light fixtures will all get new energy saving LED or Titanium/LED light bulbs. When all these bulbs are installed you will see a significant lighting improvement throughout most of the building. We will get more light while reducing our energy consumption, thereby cutting the cost of our electric bill. Good for the environment and good for HT.

These bulbs last, on average, four to five times longer than compact fluorescent bulbs and ten to fifteen times longer than traditional screw-in light bulbs. It is extremely difficult and time-consuming to replace the 158 light bulbs in the dome and ceiling of our sanctuary. If the specifications are accurate on these new bulbs, one or both of our custodians will have retired before they need replacing.

The upgrade alone comes to nearly $40,000 and I estimate that the labor would have come to over $5,000 if we hired an outside electrician to complete this project.

New York Landmarks Conservancy Grant

Thanks to Paul Glassman, Joan Laufer, Ralph Selig and myself, HT was successful in obtaining a $40,000 exterior building grant. $10,000 is set aside for a consultant to put together the specification and bidding documents and to manage the project. The bidding document will list several line items that will be priced individually by the contractors. It is anticipated that $40,000 will not be enough to cover all the items listed. What items get done will depend on the pricing of the bids that come in and the priority of the work. It is a long process but if all goes well we hope work can start in early fall.

Armin and Estelle Gold Wing

The Wing is currently being plastered and painted. When all the work is completed, the marble floors will be polished. With the upgraded lighting, the wing should look as good as gold.

Drain Pipe Leaks

During the last heavy rain, two eighty-year-old roof drain pipes failed, creating a mess in the sanctuary and causing a fair amount of damage to the ceiling in several areas. We were extremely fortunate to get the pipes repaired almost immediately after the first heavy rain. The forecast was for more heavy rain the same day and the next as well. We avoided a major catastrophe. The cost of the pipe repair set us back $4,500 and to repair the ceiling will cost us $2,300. I would like to thank Beth Am for donating the proceeds from the recent concert and the few other members who have recently sent in donations. Additional donations to help defray the cost would be greatly appreciated. I would also like to thank our custodial staff who were a tremendous help during this emergency.

Twenty-Four Years and Counting

SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER, 2013

Artist's Opening Reception

Monday, September 30, 2013 • 7-8:30pm

ARTIST'S STATEMENT

Elizabeth Lorris Ritter is a 30-year resident of Washington Heights; active congregant at the Hebrew Tabernacle and President of Beth Am, the People's Temple; longtime Community Board 12 member; trustee of various civic and arts non-profits; community activist; singer in choirs; avid crocheter; and works in state government. She is married (for 24 years this September) to Barry Ritter; they have two fabulous adult children, Tina & David.

Photographs which form the basis of her fall show, Rest in Pieces, were taken in 2012 & 2013 during volunteer efforts to document Jamaica's old Jewish cemeteries for future conservation. (Spanish & Portuguese Jews escaping the Inquisition settled throughout the Caribbean, where they were instrumental in mercantile trade and agriculture. Jamaica's oldest cemetery, located just outside of Kingston, with graves dating to the 17th century, is Jewish.) Sharing these photographs allows the dead to talk to us, that their stories might not vanish along with their mortal remains. It is a resurrection of memory: homage to lives once lived.

Barry Ritter has been an avid photographer for more than 40 years. His subjects range from sports, to nature, to architecture, to candid portraiture. Barry has a keen eye for composition, and for capturing patterns and the subtle arrangement of objects in a naturally-occurring still life. Although he no longer develops his own prints, he continues to play with exposure through software in digital photography.

This exhibit will be open to all from September through October, 2013. Please call the synagogue office to find out viewing hours for the Gold Gallery; 212-568-8304.

Some photographs may be for sale. Please discuss this with the artists.

Hebrew Tabernacle receives a special donation from each purchase.

The Hebrew Tabernacle Board of Trustees, membership, and friends wish to extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Beth Am Board and membership for the donation of $1,000 towards the repair of the pipes in the building, following the recent flood. This is indeed a big step towards raising the monies needed and we greatly appreciate it.
