The Victim’s Fortune, by John Authers and Richard Wolffe (2003). Fifty years after World War II, a small group of Americans launched a campaign to confront the world with the fact that many assets looted by the Nazis had never been returned to their owners. Backed by class-action lawsuits and threats of economic sanctions, they mounted a vigorous challenge against some of the world's largest corporations and governments to demand billions of dollars.

Author and Hebrew Tabernacle member John Authers will join us!
