ROGER GRADESS – Photographs COVERS AND SNAPSHOTS

Artist's Statement:

I've been interested in photography since I was twelve years old. At that time there was only black and white film and I had my own darkroom with a good enlarger. I loved learning the mechanical and chemical manipulations of film developing and printing to achieve results that everyone's cell phone can now do in an instant.

Fort Washington Avenue, 2014

When taking a photo I look for composition, visual appeal, and interest rather than deliberate symbolism.

My photos have appeared on the covers of The Messenger – the newsletter of Beth Am, The People's Temple – where I am its editor.

Israel – Wailing
Wall, 2009

I'm a retired psychologist who has lived in Upper Manhattan since 1982, raising my family here and enjoying the peace and quiet.
