RETURNING

Paintings and Pen & Ink Drawings
by Lilia Levin

Lilia Levin is an artist, art educator, designer, curator, and volunteer. In her words, she is passionate about the planet, the country, the city, the community, and of course about art. She sees her work as a tiny but present and helpful piece in the whole that is our world.

Her work is both emotional and philosophical, containing both the lament of loss and displacement, with a demand for peace and unity. RETURNING is about coming back, after a tragic time, to a very imperfect world, with hope.

Lilia is a new volunteer co-curator of this Armin and Estelle Gold Wing art gallery. She has participated in many group shows in NYC, such as AIR Gallery, Ceres Gallery, and NoMAA. She has organized neighborhood art exhibitions such as Uptown Images and Art@LeCheile. Lilia is a winner of the 2021 Uptown Arts Stroll poster contest. Two of Lilia's paintings were featured in the movie musical In the Heights, 2021.
