

The Hebrew Tabernacle's Armin and Estelle Gold Wing Gallery
August, September, October, 2024 Exhibition and Fundraiser

THE HEBREW ART PRINTS OF ROSAMOND GUMPERT JORGENSEN, z"l (of blessed memory)
and
THE POTTERY OF HER DAUGHTER DIANA GUMPERT DOUGLAS

Print maker and art therapist, Rosamond Gumpert Jorgensen, z"l, was born in Nebraska in 1917 and passed away in California in 2010.

It is said of her that she had a core of steel nestled in gentleness and radiance. The same might be said of her daughter Diana.

Diana Gumpert Douglas, is a sculptor, volunteer city gardener, and creative arts therapist.

She is a member of The Hebrew Tabernacle Congregation and its Yad b'Yad Legacy of the Sisterhood, as well as a co-curator of the Armin and Estelle Gold Wing art gallery.
