May their memories be for a blessing

5785 (2024)

AS THE CIRCLE NARROWS, OUR VISION WIDENS

When we enter this world, we are born into a wide circle of relatives and family friends. As we grow, we add to that circle by making friends and acquaintances of our own. We become aware of the size and extent of our family when we gather together, from the various parts of the country, for life cycle events or reunions.

And yet at some point in time, for each and every one of us, that circle narrows as death takes its toll and one by one our family members and acquaintances return to the Source of All Life. As we grow older and mature, we begin to notice, both in daily life and family gatherings, that our seemingly innumerable group of relatives and acquaintances is, little by little, diminishing. As we watch the circle narrow, we become ever more cognizant of our mortality, and understand that our time will also come.

Our sages understood that we need to set aside time, both to remember those who have passed from this earthly existence, and also to reflect upon the meaning and worth of our lives. Thus, four times a year, at Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Pesach and Shavuot, we remember our loved ones in a special service called Yizkor, or Remembrance.

At these four special times of the year, we momentarily widen that ever narrowing circle. Through the power of memory, we are able to unlock the past and bring it back into the present. Through memory we once again find ourselves in the midst of family and friends whom we felt invited back from beyond the grave to make their presence felt in our midst. As we acknowledge their indelible influence, and the impact they have had on our lives, we know that in some way they will always be with us.

May their memories be for a blessing. . .

THIS BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE is respectfully dedicated to those whom we love and to the memory of the members of our official family who labored in the vineyard of the Lord and gave of themselves unstintingly on behalf of our congregation.

May their memories be for a blessing. . .

TO THE DEPARTED whom we now remember, may peace be granted in the world of eternal life. May they find grace and mercy before the Lord of heaven and earth. May the G-d of peace send peace to all troubled souls, and comfort all the bereaved among us.
