HOME SICK HOME

Artist's Statement:

As an Israeli-American NYC based visual artist and peace activist born in Israel, the past years have been a living hell.

Israeli and Palestinian mothers suffer to no end from this war.

My body of work 'Home Sick Home' speaks to these conflictual feelings and notions of motherhood in impossible times.

Cohen's two-dimensional works incorporate mixed media and printmaking techniques. She earned her Master's in Fine Arts at the Parsons School of Design and her Bachelor's of Fine Arts at the Bezalel Academy in Jerusalem. She is the mother of two young children.
